

M'MANUS' FOES KEEP 5-CENT-FARE ISSUE IN FRONT

"His Knifing of That Bill Will Elect Me," Cries Plunkett to Cheering Crowd.

APPEALS, TO M'CARREN.

Tammany Hears That Even the Mayor Has Deserted
"The" in His Fight.

"The" McManus has been in consultation with "Pat" McCarren, the Standard Oil Senator from Brooklyn, "Jimmy" the Gas Man, Owens, of Perry Nags's staff, "Poor John" McCall and other knifing of the Coney Island 5-Cent Fare Bill in a final and desperate appeal for aid to save his scalp as Tammany leader of the Eleventh District. It is well known in regular Democratic circles that Charles F. Murphy is for the election of George W. Plunkett to succeed "the champion dodger of the State Senate" as executive member from the west side district.

"Pat" is a hard name, but McManus's acts at Albany compel me to speak harshly of the New York hand-shaker known as "The," said Candidate Plunkett. "He is alone responsible for his record in the State Senate, and the voters of the west side are united in this contest to send McManus to the political Dismal and Out-Clap." "Paddy" Blane, a man known as "Doc" McDonough and a joke called "Sam" Ash are McManus's mainstays in this fight. But his knifing of the Coney Island 5-Cent Fare Bill will alone give me enough votes to beat him."

Plunkett spoke to 1,000 people at the outdoor meeting of the Charles Hackett Association at Tenth Avenue and Fifth Street last night, and received the heartiest welcome of the present fight. Women and children joined in the applause that greeted his remarks concerning McManus, his enemies, and the strangeness of the Five-cent fare bill. Besten, says Plunkett.

"Why don't the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company assist McManus in this fight?" Plunkett asked. "All corporations are glad to aid their tools, and if the B. R. T. thought 'Tom, the Dodger,' had a chance of winning they'd fill his dough bag. McManus is on his last legs, and his strongest supporters are away from him. I have been in touch with almost all his district captains and they have practically deserted him. Get the book, for 'Tom' McManus will leave the political stage after next Tuesday, as sure as my name is George Washington Plunkett."

P. A. McManus, no relation of the candidate for leader, and the same man who nominated him for leader two years ago, read the following Senate record of "The" McManus:

Kaifed Coney Island Five-Cent Fare Bill.

Voted against removal of Eleventh Avenue tracks.

Dodged on School Teachers' Equal Pay measure.

Against the Employers' Liability Act, which trades-unions requested of him to favor.

Stood with "McCarren gang" on all corporation measures.

Deserted his party on the Mayor's account.

Ducked and fled from all bills favored by his constituents.

William J. Lee asked the crowd if they wanted Plunkett for leader, and a thousand voices shouted "Yes!" There was not a dissenting voice.

That Little Joke Walk.

"The little babies of the Eleventh District remember McManus's fake May party in Central Park," said Lee. "He cheated the children of the tenement-houses 15 cents each to attend. McManus dressed himself in a 'Fifty Avenue English walking suit,' a Tiffany diamond stud, high silk hat and gold knob cane, and in that regalia led the parade through the district, headed by a brass band. Outsiders shouted 'Let's McManus the charitable man.' Test he is not. He fed the babies—ten thousand of 'em—ice cream and cake, donated by the auctioneers of the district, and then walked them back through the streets of the district, where what a great leader he was. McManus treated it as a circus parade.

At Tammany Hall to-day it was said that the McCarren faction had thrown McManus down, and with the opposition of Leader Murphy, he has no one else to look to for political backing except "Long Pat" of Brooklyn.

Curran, the secretary of the Bricklayers' Union, and one of McManus's closest friends, and a cardinal speaker two years ago, has joined Plunkett. Curran said that in view of the fact that McManus has been beaten in the Senate, he could not see his way clear to support him.

Lacked Mind of His Own.

"I'm for Plunkett," said Curran, "because McManus did not have nerve enough to show his mind in the Senate. He was a man known as 'The,' said Candidate Plunkett. "He is alone responsible for his record in the State Senate, and the voters of the west side are united in this contest to send McManus to the political Dismal and Out-Clap." "Paddy" Blane, a man known as "Doc" McDonough and a joke called "Sam" Ash are McManus's mainstays in this fight. But his knifing of the Coney Island 5-Cent Fare Bill will alone give me enough votes to beat him."

Why does P. & G. (Procter & Gamble) Naphtha Soap do such good work? There are two reasons:

1. It is good soap.
2. It contains naphtha.

Possibly you do not know how naphtha does its work.

The way of it is this: Naphtha has an "affinity," an attraction, for dirt. Naphtha breaks dirt into tiny particles, which are easily removed by soap and water.

In other words, naphtha loosens the dirt. Soap and water remove it.

If you have never used P. & G. Naphtha Soap you can have no idea of its remarkable qualities in the way of removing spots and stains. Try it! You will be astonished at the ease with which it will remove ugly stains from carpets, rugs, clothes, etc.

P. & G. Naphtha Soap is for sale in almost every grocery in this city. The price is 5 cents a cake.
